Notes:

CMS core set reporting – developmental screening potentially to be added as quality measure

- In January, developmental screening moved on to the next stage a potential priority for quality measures
- Leah reached out to Sharon. She is not aware of the contact for the Medicaid regulations planning group. Status of the planning is a bit unknown – Leah can check in with Anne O. to see if she's heard any updates or has asked any questions.
- Arianna was reluctant to share specific contact names before she left. She gave them our contact information so they know who to reach out to when ready.
- Here's the link to the 2020 Medicaid HMO Quality Guide. This includes core measure requirements.

CCHP – HMO regulation updates re: developmental screening

- Naomi has developed a survey to gauge what HMOs currently have in place re: screening
- 4 dates scheduled in March – 2 on Dev scrning, 2 on mental health

Updates series (previously "Developmental Grand Rounds")

- We are going to push back the first session to April since we've not yet identified a fam med rep for the planning committee
- Naomi has some potential family med ppl to contact – she will forward their contact info to Danielle.
- Anne's contact suggested Melissa Stiles as a family med rep – Danielle will reach out to her
- Danielle will look at Diane's availability and work with her to identify a date in April for the first session.
- WiSMHI can help promote the series – Medical Home minute goes out the second Tuesday of the month but can send out a special edition if need be
- Leah suggested that we consider focusing on social-emotional screening at a future series, then refer to WiSMHI training if they are interested in learning more – the group is open to this

Family ed re: dev screening

- Naomi wondering how families are accessing resources/info about development
- There are resources out there – Learn the Signs. Act Early. - but if families aren't accessing public health or education resources they may not find them. This is why having primary care effectively share this info to families is so important.
- Gail has been talking with Well Badger about developing an online hub for training & resources for families
- COVID-19 work group - funding available to print postcards for families to provide info on app and direct to LTSAE
